The past year was spent
in feverish action
by the annual staff.
Photographer Larry Kern
risked life and limb
to take unusual shots as did Mr.
Ronald Laugen, chemistry teacher-at-large. Layout editor Janet Rybon burned the midnight
oil many nights right
before deadline. Suzette
Kern and Lillian Ishimoto
spent hours preparing copy for print. Among those on the hardworking
staff who devoted
many Saturday afternoons of work was Advertising editor Linda Wienecke
without whose help this yearbook might not have been financed.

It was a job well done.

We dedicate . . .

"Tomorrow you will have to play
A much more difficult piece-- tomorrow, when the audience is beginning to listen for wrong
notes and you no longer have me in the wings. Then we shall see what you can really do."

Dag Hammarskojold

Yes, she stood in the wings and prompted us as the first pages of the Rising Sun unfolded. She coached us endlessly until each role was perfection itself.

It is done--completely finished.
The curtain is going up on the debut
of the 1967 Rising Sun.

We dedicate this, our annual,
to her in sincerest appreciation.
She showed us what we can really do.

Thank you, Miss Oran.

THEY SET THE PACE FOR JUNIORS

President, Karl Lawson; Vice President, Gregg Takamura; Secretary, Barbara Kimoto; Treasurer, Sandy Sayama

The Juniors of 1968 led by Karl Lawson have been the nucleus of Zama High. They contributed a great deal to the school spirit at Zama, ranging from athletics to school government.

Success followed by success describes the Juniors' achievements. During Homecoming Week, the undaunted Junior Powderpuff football team stomped the Seniors with a 14-6 victory. Their Homecoming float "Sink the Vikings" also ran away with the first place prize.

The class also won a prize for having the most subscriptions for the Kakimono. In December their Christmas decorations captured first place.

Concessions played a major role in money making. With this hard earned money, the Juniors successfully climaxed the year with the Junior-Senior Prom.

Now the Juniors eagerly await their promotion in rank to Seniors.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

The Sophomores marked a successful and exciting year under the leadership of Joe Duray Pres; James McNab V. Pres; Kathy Joslin Sec; Dodie Wallach Treas.

The Class of '69 contributed much of the school spirit, while Kathy Joslin, Yok Lan Akana, Sandy Abing, Kathy Hamilton, Martha Baine and Dodie Wallach cheered them on. Gene Warner was cheered on and he was voted our most Valuable Player in football!

Kathy Joslin represented the class as our attendant on the Homecoming court, and Yok Lan Akana represented us at the Christmas Dance.

Sophomore activities through the year included a Valentine's dance, bake sales, and hall decorating.

Junior High

Highlights

The Junior High should certainly be commended for this year's achievements. They began the year with the publication of their first school newspaper, the ZENITH. The editors, along with the supervision of Miss Godbey, seem to be heading in the right direction for a progressive year.

The Junior High have organized their first clubs identical to those of the high school. The student council, governing body of the Junior High, is lead in its activities by Chang Tai Akana.

Zama 55

On Friday, January 27, the Zama Trojans hosted the Vikings from Chofu. The game was evenly matched up to halftime with Chofu ahead by a three point margin. But as soon as the buzzer sounded for the third quarter, Chofu spurted ahead to a comfortable 19 points lead. In the last quarter Zama rallied but could not overcome the deficit.

On Friday, January 27, the Trojan J.V. Squad under Coach Petit finally showed the effects of hard practice as they downed the Chofu Vikings in a 45-35 rout. After four straight losses the sharpshooting of Fred Stuart and Danny Wooldridge proved to be too much for the Chofu defense.

The Zama Trojan grapplers, due to the lack of wrestlers, had a bad season. As many as five forfeits a match was too much of a deficit to overcome. Although the team as a whole did not shine, Zama boasted a few outstanding individual wrestlers such as: Joe Mayes, Kelly Hammond, and Carlos Nieves.

Golf

Events

Our unsung Golf Team, under the supervision of Mr. Davis, proved to have enough potential to be in the running as we placed second in a match held at Camp Drake despite the disappointing performance of some of our better golfers. John Fellenz and Alan Kikuyama placed 1 & 2 respectively on our team.

Two other matches were held at Atsugi and Showa. At both matches Jim Laurila won the Medalist Honor with John Fellenz not far behind in the field. Since our team is composed of underclassmen we expect to be strong next season and the years to come. Thanks to Mr. Davis for our existence.

It's a dog's life...

East is east and West is west.
Look how the two did meet.

What do you mean, I have detention?

Has iron-poor blood
got YOU down?

Ooooh! I like your mini-skirt.

Frank
It's been nice knowing you. I see you next year on the football field if I'm
